Mission of the Organization

Throughout the year we strive to:

- Promote pride and positive self-esteem in the GSD (Gender and Sexually Diverse) community in Regina and the surrounding area.
- Raise awareness and counteract discrimination of GSD peoples in the larger community.
- Plan a yearly Pride celebration within the city of Regina.
- Work with organizations and individuals who are supportive of the GSD community to promote strong partnerships.
- Work with GSD support groups within the community to encourage solidarity amongst them.

Article I: Name and Definitions

1. Name:

- i. Regina Pride Inc.

2. Definitions:

- I. Regina Pride Inc. will herein be known as “the Organization”.
- II. “Entire Membership” refers to all General Members including the Board of Directors.
- III. “Gender and Sexually Diverse” refers to all people within, but not limited to the LGBT2QQAPI (Lesbian, Gay, Bi, Trans*, Two-Spirited, Queer, Questioning, Asexual, Pansexual, Intersex) spectrum. GSD is a more inclusive term that makes no assumptions on an individual’s identity.
- IV. All people who self-identify within the Gender and/or Sexually Diverse spectrum are included in our definition of “community”.
- V. “Board Member” and “Board member” shall refer to a current Director of the Organization as defined by the Non-Profit Corporations Act, 1995.
- VI. “Board of Directors” shall refer to the collective, current Board Members (Directors) of the Organization as a whole.¹
- VIII. “Voters” shall refer to any Member as defined in Article II, ¶1.i present at a Meeting of the Membership (either in person or by valid proxy).²
